User guide:

Our database gives access to 3 types of users :

1 customers

2 admin

3 supplier

Customers can login or register into the application , and view products and order them.

Filters are provided for customers usability

Admin have to login

He have the access to all the data in the database and makes decision based on that data

Suppliers have given access to the products which are low and ability to modify the stock of the products.